ADMISSIONS 2024-25

Admission into Classes 11 for this academic year is closed.

No candidate can be assured of admission into any class since it is completely dependent on the availability of seats.

Applicants are requested to refrain from seeking an appointment to meet the school authorities regarding admission through any channel.

St. Columba's School does not accept any form of donation in lieu of admission and no third-party involvement is used or encouraged. Admission is entirely a matter between the applying parent and the school and no assurance of admission can be given.

The Principal's decision in matters of admission is final. No person is authorised to seek admission on behalf of a child of whom he / she is not the legal guardian. Parents and Guardians are not to trust or believe in any person from the school or outside who claims to have influence on the selection of students for admission.
